

Application for the Environment Council of Rhode Island's 2022 Loraine Tisdale Fund Environmental Education Awards

Name of Applicant: _____

Address: City/Town: State: Zip: _____

Phone: _____

Email: _____

Name of Project Leader/ Director/ Responsible Person: _____

Name of group/ school sponsoring the project: _____

City or Town in which project will occur: _____

Estimated number of persons carrying out project: _____

Purpose of project:

Budget for the project, including sources of funds and whether those funds are in hand:

Completion date for project: _____

Please include a one page description of the project including a working project title, the cooperative components of the project, what the participants will gain, and how the success of the project will be measured.

 Applicants should note that a final report including at least one photograph of the project in progress must be produced at the end of the project and presented to the Environment Council by July 15, 2022. Applicants should be aware ECRI will do some publicity around the winning projects and encourages winners to publicize their projects as well. The application deadline is November 24, 2021 and awards will be made in January 2022 for projects to be undertaken in the Spring of 2022. Application info is online at: <https://www.environmentcouncilri.org/news/applications-2020-tisdale-awards-now-available>

We would prefer that applications be emailed to us at environmentcouncil@earthlink.net in the body of an email, as a pdf, or as a Word document.

We can be contacted either by email at the address above or by phone at 331-0529. An ECRI Education Fund representative will be available to answer any questions you have about the program and to discuss potential projects with you.